The Anthony Wayne girl's cross country team ran at the regional race in Tiffin over the weekend. The girl's placed 12th out of 24 teams overall. Great job this season ladies! All runners need to turn in their jerseys to Coach Scribner by Thursday.

Congratulations to the AWHHS football team for making it into the playoffs. It has been 15 years since AW's last playoff berth. In honor of this event, we would like to declare Tuesday as "Hats off day". Students and staff wear your favorite hat to school. Wednesday as team jersey day or college logo day. Students and staff wear your favorite jersey. Thursday will be declared blue and white day. Thanks to all students for their support and Go Generals beat Whitmer! The High School administration is attempting to arrange a spirit bus for the 7pm playoff game. If students are interested in riding a spirit bus to the game please sign up in the office. We will be sending off the team and having a tailgating and then leaving for the game.

Oui! It's once again National French Week. Join the French students in celebrating the language and cultures of 40 French-speaking countries around the world. When you're upstairs today pick up an entry form for the French Week contest.

In order to celebrate Veterans' Day this year, the AWHHS social studies department will be holding a fundraiser for the Honor Flight Program throughout the month of November. Honor Flight is a program that raises money to send World War II veterans to Washington D.C. to visit the World War II Memorial. Starting November 1st teachers will be collecting donations during their 5th period classes. This program will end at the end of November with the class that donates the most winning a pizza party. The goal of the program is to raise $400, enough to send one veteran to Washington D.C. Please support this program throughout November.

Congratulations to the dance team. They went to their first competition this Saturday. The team placed first in the pom division and second in the jazz division. Good luck for the rest of the season!
